Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On March 1, 2018, Omnicell, Inc. (the “Company”) announced that J. Christopher Drew will depart from his role as President, North American Automation and Analytics, effective April 2, 2018, in connection with an internal strategic reorganization. The Company would like to thank Mr. Drew for his many contributions during his Omnicell career and for being instrumental in Omnicell’s growth from a small startup to today’s market position.

Upon Mr. Drew’s departure from the Company and pursuant to the Company’s Amended and Restated Severance Plan (the “Plan”), Mr. Drew will be entitled to receive: (i) a cash severance benefit equal to twenty (20) months’ current base salary, or six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000), (ii) payment of premiums for Mr. Drew’s group health plan coverage pursuant to federal COBRA law for eighteen (18) months, (iii) a cash payment equal to an additional two (2) months of premiums for Mr. Drew’s group health plan coverage pursuant to federal COBRA law and (iv) outplacement services, provided that Mr. Drew meets certain requirements under the Plan, including executing a general waiver and release. In addition, subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors, the Company intends to extend the period within which Mr. Drew may exercise his vested stock options from his departure from the Company on April 2, 2018 until February 4, 2019 (the “Extended Exercise Period”). Pursuant to the Company’s 2009 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended, the vesting of Mr. Drew’s stock options (and other equity awards) will cease on April 2, 2018, the date of his departure from the Company, and no additional vesting will occur during the Extended Exercise Period.

The Company has commenced a search for a new Chief Commercialization Officer and anticipates that the search will take approximately two months to complete. Reporting directly to Randall A. Lipps, the Company’s President and Chief Executive Officer, this new role is designed to drive the necessary collaboration across functions with focus on the platforms, services and technologies Omnicell brings to its customers, and will assume responsibility for the Company’s North American Automation and Analytics sales, field and operations.
