Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On September 13, 2018, Robin G. Seim notified Omnicell, Inc. (the “Company”) that he will retire and depart from his role as President, Global Automation and Medication Adherence, effective March 15, 2019.

In addition, on September 13, 2018, the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) increased the size of the Board from eight (8) to nine (9) members effective March 18, 2019 and elected Mr. Seim to serve as a member of the Board to fill this newly created position on the Board in the class of directors the term of which expires in 2020, effective March 18, 2019.

In connection with his election to the Board, Mr. Seim will be granted a non-qualified stock option (the “Initial Board Grant”) for such number of shares of the Company’s common stock as is determined by dividing $150,000 by the closing price of the Company’s common stock as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Market on the date of grant, pursuant to the Company’s Amended and Restated 2009 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”). The Initial Board Grant will vest in equal annual installments over three years from the date of grant. Mr. Seim will also be granted a prorated annual board member restricted stock grant (the “Annual Board Grant”) pursuant to the Plan. The Annual Board Grant will vest in full on the date of the Company’s subsequent annual meeting of stockholders, so long as Mr. Seim remains a director until such date.

A copy of the press release announcing the foregoing is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Rob Seim to retire and join Omnicell Board of Directors

Mountain View, Calif., (September 14, 2018) — Omnicell, Inc. (NASDAQ: OMCL), the leading provider of medication and supply management technology across the continuum of care, today announced that Rob Seim, President of Global Automation and Medication Adherence, has indicated his intent to retire as of March 15, 2019. The company also announced the appointment of Mr. Seim to the Board of Directors following his retirement. Mr. Seim served Omnicell as its Chief Financial Officer for nearly 10 years and was also Executive Vice President of Finance, Administration, and Manufacturing during that time. For the past three years, Mr. Seim has served as President of Global Automation and Medication Adherence which includes responsibility for all of the non-US business of Omnicell, several product lines, and worldwide manufacturing. During his 13 years at Omnicell, revenue grew over 550% and market valuation grew over 8 fold.

“Rob has been an instrumental member of the leadership team since joining Omnicell in 2006,” said Randall Lipps, Omnicell Chairman, President, Chief Executive Officer and Founder. “As a member of Omnicell’s Board of Directors, we will continue to have access to Rob’s experience, insight, and financial acumen as he transitions to the next chapter of his life.”

Mr. Seim has provided sufficient notice for the company to make a thoughtful and orderly transition of his responsibilities, which will be announced closer to his actual date of retirement in 2019. “Omnicell is uniquely positioned in the healthcare market with solutions that automate pharmacy and supply workflows, freeing clinicians to focus on patients, improving patient safety, and driving down costs of healthcare,” said Mr. Seim. “I’ve been very fortunate to be able to contribute to Omnicell’s vision of improving healthcare for everyone and look forward to continuing to contribute to the company’s success as a board member.”

About Omnicell

Since 1992, Omnicell (NASDAQ: OMCL) has been inspired to create safer and more efficient ways to manage medications and supplies across all care settings. Omnicell is revolutionizing the patient medication experience from hospital to home by empowering providers to keep each patient at the center of care. The Company’s autonomous approach to medication management leverages a differentiated platform for hardware and workflow software solutions, real-time predictive intelligence, and performance-driven partnerships to help drive operational, financial, and clinical success for customers.

Supporting the highest level of patient safety is essential to excellent patient care.
